We welcome all of those who are visiting with us this morning at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church. Please join us following the Divine Liturgy for coffee hour. We pray that your experience here this morning was uplifting. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

1. Copies of our book for Lenten reading, A Night in the Desert on the Holy Mountain, are in the coffee hour room. There should be one for each family or household in the parish. If you find we have run out let me know!
2. Next Saturday we serve the first of a series of Liturgies for those who have reposed. Please make sure we have the names and date of death of your reposed loved ones. Indicate which of them are Orthodox and which are not.
3. Also next Saturday we will baptize Levi Henson, the son of Reader John and Kimberly Henson. That will be at 4:30 that afternoon.
4. As is our custom we will collect canned goods and toiletry items during Great Lent. We will deliver our offerings to a local charity during Holy Week..

While Holy Communion is reserved for Orthodox Christians who prepare themselves by prayer and fasting, non-Orthodox visitors are welcome to come forward to venerate the cross and receive the Antidoron (blessed bread) at the conclusion of the service.

Forget for at least this space of time the bustle and concerns of everyday life. Be like an angel, filled only with thoughts of God and of serving Him. After all, He is present now, and is blessing you. - Hieromartyr Seraphim (Zvezdinsky), Bishop of Dmitrov (1883-c.1937)
